GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN IN THE WALL STREET GOLD ROOM. - The above worthy went into the gold room on Wall street Thursday, in company with a friend, and was at once forced to make a speech. He predicted panies and evils untold, to occur before the end of the year. A portion of his premises present a very stricking picture of the past and the preent. He said :

In 1860, we had recovered from the financial panic of 1857, and had not commenced the panic of Rebellion and of war. Prosperity all over the land; five million bales of cotton on a thousand plantations; five million tons of shipping on every ocean-agriculture well to domanufacturers prosperous—banks, and insurance companies, paying good dividends-railroads succeeding-the petroleum wells just being developed-sixty millions of gold sent us annually from the Pacific mines-the Stock market giving a harvest to the brokers, (applause,) the dry goods merchants making money-in short, prosperity all over the land, and yet all done on a currency of two hundred and fifty millions - (applause.) and "that's so." Now then, for another picture-1867-five million tons of shipping wiped off the sea, by England's neutrality-no five millions of cotton in the South-three hundred million sunk in petroleum—the gold mining companies Colorado, Idaho, Montana, and Nevada, has never seen his money. ("That's so.")-Where there is plenty of quartz there is no stamps, no mills-and where there are plenty laughter.) Agricultural products are not doing well. The crops have not been flourishingwoolen and other manufacturers are suspending payment. Insurance Companies are failing .-Steamship property is dying out. The rottenest security in the street is your so-called giltedged paper. The rich men are all poor .-They are first to call their Loans. Those patriotic radicals who put their money into Southern cotton plantations, have planted it there forever. (Laughter.) The West is not paying up promptly. The South have nothing financial Morgue of the land-(laughter)since January. - In short paralysis everywhere -the dry rot in Wall street is the new disease -brokers market-nobody paying expenses-make your own inferences-gentlemen-(sensation)—shall I go on-cries of yes-another THURLOW WEED ON THE SITUATION. - This veteran journalist again resumes the duties of the editorial chair, from which he intended a permanent withdrawal, and fills nearly five columns of the New York Commercial Advertiser with an "Introductory," reviewing the history of the war, also recent legislation in Congress, checks exchanged to show life-all loans on call-no business doing-no industrial enter-this on an expansion of one thousand millions; and concluding with personal reminiscences. A few detached paragraphs will indicate sufficiently the spirit of these lucubrations, as fol-"We are in the second phase of rebellionphase, in some of its aspects, more alarming than the first; for the dangers are insidious and plausible, rather than open and defiant. -Then we encountered enemies in the field. Now we are dealing with internal animosities and ambitions. Where are we now? Two years have been used up in disproving what it cost four rears to establish, viz: That the Union is indissoluble. We fought four years to confound the heresy of secession, and now recognize and affirm it as a truth! We called upon Georgia and upon North and South Carolina, as States, 10 adopt the constitutional amendment abolishlog slavery, and now deny that they were or are States! And this bold contradiction raises the grave question whether slavery is constitutionally abolished? for if they were not States, then the amendment did not receive a threelourths majority.

* An honest, earnest public sentiment has been perverted and abused. An American Congress, during its lifetime, has been governed despotically. Its members named a Directory of Fifteen in caucus, by which it was ruled during a session of eight months, thus sinking and merging their individuality with their convictions and their independence. -Before the President had, by any act, incurred the just displeasure of republicans, he was debounced in Congress as an "enemy of his country' and a "traitor." He was arraigned for impeachment before a committee which, after six weeks labor, reports that while no mence has been discovered sustaining the charges of "high crimes and misdemeanors," yet, to *keep the ball rolling," they bequeath the accusation to their successors! * Ours is a peace without significance without fruits, other than of bitterness. We of the North have become as exacting and aggressive after, as Southern men were before, the rebellion."
